Bryan Kist joined Spine & Sport in 2007. He graduated from Hofstra University in 1998 as a biology major, and from New York Medical College in May of 2001 with his masters of science degree in physical therapy.

Bryan was a senior physical therapist at New York Presbyterian Hospital at Columbia University Medical Center for 5 1/2 years. He has experience treating patients with acute conditions including orthopedics, neurology, neurosurgery, general medical/surgical, oncology, cardiology, cardiothoracic surgery, pulmonary rehabilitation, inpatient rehabilitation, outpatient orthopedics and vestibular rehabilitation.

He has completed the Competency Based Certification for Vestibular Rehabilitation, Recognized by the APTA for Advanced Clinical Practice: He helped to develop the Outpatient Vestibular program at Columbia University Medical Center in New York, and worked as the vestibular physical therapist for over a year there. He specializes in oculomotor examination with emphasis on the identification of nystagmus and canal involvement, assessment of balance and gait, fall risk and functional mobility. He also treated unilateral and bilateral peripheral vestibular disorders and central vestibular disorders including multiple sclerosis and stroke. Bryan is interested in obtaining a McKenzie Certification and an APTA recognized clinical specialty in Orthopedics.

Jodi Laird, from Nashville, Tennessee joins the Spine and Sport team as Public Relations Manager. A 15 year veteran of the music business, Jodi served as Tour Promotion Coordinator for Reba McEntire's Starstruck Entertainment, where she worked on the Reba, Brooks & Dunn Tour. After leaving Starstruck, Jodi joined Warner Bros. Nashville as Manager of A&R Administration and oversaw the recording projects of artists Faith Hill, Blake Shelton and Big & Rich to name a few.

Jodi attended college at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she studied Biology. She currently lives on Wilmington Island with her husband Tommy and their 8 year old daughter Rachel.
